At CityLife – Allianz MiCo in Milan from 24 to 25 June 2026

FASTENER FAIR ITALY 2026: THE LEADING EVENT FOR THE FASTENER AND FIXING INDUSTRY RETURNS TO MILAN

Milan, 8 January 2026 - Following the success of its fourth edition, which brought together over 200 exhibitors from 19 countries and attracted more than 2,400 qualified visitors from across Europe, Fastener Fair Italy will return from 24 to 25 June 2026 at CityLife – Allianz MiCo in Milan. The event is confirmed as Italy's key meeting point for professionals in fasteners, fixings, and fastening systems. Visitor registration will open in early February, giving industry professionals the opportunity to plan their attendance well in advance.

To date, many companies have already confirmed their participation in the only Italian trade event dedicated entirely to the sector, including major players such as Ambrovit, Berardi Bullonerie, Bontempi, Corbetta Ermanno, Fastbolt, Gandini, Index/Chavesbao, Vilux Viterie, Vipa, Viteria Fusani, Viteria Smel and many more. Additional exhibition opportunities are still available for manufacturers, wholesalers and distributors of fastening systems, machinery producers, and suppliers of related technologies and services wishing to engage with a highly specialised audience.

The fifth edition of Fastener Fair Italy introduces a refreshed format enriched by several new features designed to offer visitors an even more comprehensive, forward-looking experience. Among the highlights are two new thematic areas that further expand and enhance the exhibition profile. One will focus on hand tools, showcasing a wide range of equipment used in assembly, installation and maintenance complementary products that support and enhance fastening applications, giving professionals an immediate overview of the most relevant solutions for their work.

The second will be dedicated to precision turning, bringing together manufacturers specialising in advanced machining and subcontracting, and offering visitors the opportunity to meet qualified companies and explore high-quality turned components produced by industry experts.

These dedicated zones are designed to make the visit more streamlined and targeted, facilitating the search for specific products, connecting with the most suitable suppliers, and staying up to date on key technologies and market trends. Complementing this offer, a series of financial support measures will be available to exhibiting companies, making participation easier and encouraging a broader and more diverse presence.

"Returning to Milan with Fastener Fair Italy 2026 is an important milestone for us - says Stephanie Cerri, Event Director for the European Fastener Fair exhibitions. - At a time when the fastener and fixing industry is facing a challenging market environment, it is more important than ever to create opportunities for dialogue and collaboration across the supply chain. We look with confidence towards a promising 2026 for our sector: the exhibition will provide visitors with the opportunity to meet leading industry players, explore cutting-edge solutions and gain first-hand insight into the technologies shaping new production standards".

Supported by key Media Partners, including Expometals, Fasten.it, Fastener Fixing Magazine, Fastener World, Galvanotecnica and Italy Export, the event also aims to further expand its international reach, attract
